2 shot. And then finally it was COO, and with
3 that Mary Anne and Richard came under me.

4 I think some of that was -- but 5 that kind of gives you -- Rick was very 6 careful to dole it out only after he saw
7 that I was good and I could handle it.

8 Q How many waves are we up to now?

9 A Well, there is, there is -- I
10 think, I think there were three or four 11 waves or three or four plans. I have to 12 look within the records to know exactly, you
13 know, when those people came in to me, came 14 in under me. I don't think there were ten
15 waves. But, you know, there were, I guess
16 there were more than three.

17 Q So when did IT and financial aid
18 start to report to you?

19 A That was early on, probably
20 September '12.

21 Q September of 2012?

22 A Yes. Guys, that is an estimate.
23 I am not the best with dates. It was --
24 yeah, I would say it was around there.

25 Q Financially, how is ICE doing

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A Just details and themes and
3 people and meetings. I mean, there's is a
4 very large amount of paper.

5 Q What details do you recall having 6 your memory refreshed about?

7 A A lot of details.

8 Q Tell me what you can remember.
9 Tell me what you can now remember having 10 your memory refreshed.

11 A What details do I remember? My 12 interactions with Debby and Vince and
13 financial aid and conversations or -- well,
14 details or dealings, you know, trying to get 15 students through the process more efficiently.

16 I remember, you know, my, the 17 hiring process, you know, what eventually 18 was Martha, or brought back, you know, just 19 points of being there.

20 I remember terminating Vince. I
21 remember actually how close, just how close
22 I had become with Brian over time, how 23 closely I worked with Mary Anne. There was 24 a lot there.

25 Q You said you remember about

1 M. PETERSEN

2 certain themes. What do you remember about
3 being refreshed about certain themes?

4 A Trying to, trying to have Debby
5 work with me. I don't think I have ever
6 spent so much time in my professional career
7 with anybody, trying to straighten our
8 understandings out between each other.

9 Q In what ways is your memory
10 refreshed by the team, about trying to have 11 Debby work with you?

12 A Just the boxes of e-mails and PIP
13 plans and, you know, leaves and moving
14 offices and making sure phones are working 15 and, you know.

16 Q Did you say leaves?

17 A Leaves, a leave of absence, her
18 leave of absence.

19 Q What was her leave of absence?

20 A It was connected with -- it was an 21 administrative leave because of issues we were 22 having at the time, unpaid administrative leave.

23 Q You said PIP plans. By PIP, you
24 mean performance improvement plan?

25 A Yes, it was a performance

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A There was a bit of hierarchy, or 3 at least there was the hope or intention of 4 developing a hierarchy. When the change was 5 occurring with Debby, we certainly didn't
6 want to put her in -- the attempt of this 7 was simply to be very clear that she
8 reported to Martha, but, you know, obviously 9 she was, in terms of experience and what
10 have you, more experienced than Antonia.

11 Q Associate director of financial aid
12 is above assistant director of financial aid?

13 A In my mind, yes, and we had 14 conversations about that.

15 Q "We" being?

16 A Mary Anne and Martha, when Debby
17 was returning.

18 Q In September of 2013, who was 19 responsible for compliance?

20 A I don't know when things changed.
21 My guess is -- well, no, by deductive
22 reasoning. I believe at this point when 23 Debby's title was changed, compliance went
24 to Martha. Compliance went to Martha and a
25 piece to Abby in admissions.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q What piece went to Abby in admissions?

3 A I don't recall. It was something
4 specifically -- probably something related
5 to certain admissions documents or something
6 like that. I don't think it was a lot.

7 MR. HALTER: Have this marked
8 as Petersen 5.

9 (Thereupon, the document was
10 marked Petersen Exhibit 5 for
11 identification, as of this date.)

12 BY MR. HALTER:

13 Q Do you recognize this document?

14 A No. Although, I mean, I
15 understand the contents, but no, I don't.

16 Q The date is faded at the bottom.
17 It was so in the original, but at some point
18 in 2012, and I think it is some month that 19 starts with a zero in 2012. Do you see that?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Does this accurately reflect the 22 organizational chart and responsibilities of 23 these individuals as of some point in early 24 to mid-2012?

25 A Hold on. Early to mid-2012. No

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q Which is?

3 A Debby wouldn't want to see students.

4 Q Can Debby Yeger take a shift on a
5 Saturday?

6 A Well, I don't think that is what
7 that is -- we had an agreement that I
8 maintained, and if anybody ever touched it,
9 I maintained it. And that was that Debby
10 was not going to be working on Saturday.
11 And when I took over the office, I don't 12 think we were open on Sunday. Or I know, at 13 least now, I don't even think we have 14 somebody there on a Sunday in the office.

15 Q Right. You have Saturday shifts, right?

16 A We do.

17 Q And Ms. Yeger cannot take those?

18 A And that is okay.

19 Q And you knew why?

20 A And I knew why?

21 Q You knew why.

22 A She has got a religious -- well,
23 because -- well, number one, she has got an 24 agreement because she stipulated that for 25 religious purposes, she can't work on Saturday.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q Okay. So do you have any, do you
3 know, have any reason that Mr. Aronowitz
4 would create a document that had Debby Yeger
5 working in financial aid on Saturdays and 6 Sundays?

7 MR. BAKEN: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: No.

9 MR. BAKEN: Just objection as
10 to form. I don't think that is what 11 the document says. It speaks for 12 itself. You can ask Mr. Aronowitz
13 what he meant by it.

14 MR. HALTER: I am asking Mr.
15 Petersen for his reaction.

16 MR. BAKEN: You were characterizing
17 what it said, and I just object to the 18 way you characterized it.

19 BY MR. HALTER:

20 Q Go ahead. You have had enough
21 coaching for now.

22 MR. BAKEN: Objection to that.
23 You know it is not coaching. You are 24 trying to get the witness to adopt
25 something that he didn't write.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 MR. HALTER: Objection as to
3 form, right? That was your objection,
4 objection as to form. That summarizes
5 everything that you just said there?

6 MR. BAKEN: Well, I am not sure
7 it summarizes it, but I did object to form.

8 MR. HALTER: Because you know that is 9 all you are allowed to say, right?

10 MR. BAKEN: I disagree with that.

11 MR. HALTER: Okay. Can I have
12 my question read back, please.

13 MR. BAKEN: I know that you are 14 supposed to ask the witness about his 15 personal knowledge, not to speculate
16 on what someone else meant by a
17 document that he didn't prepare.

18 MR. HALTER: Can I have my
19 question read back, please.

20 (Thereupon, the record was read
21 back by the reporter as recorded above.)

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q It sounds like you answered it.
24 Do you want to elaborate on your answer at all?

25 A That is fine. There was never a time where Brian or I, that I am aware of,

was ever going to push Debby Yeger to work a Saturday or Sunday. I believe, what I know -- okay. What I believe this to mean is that in order for the rest of the employees in financial aid to cover Saturday and Sunday, it meant that we needed to have Debby taking a student-seeing shift so that these other folks in financial aid would have a day off.

Now, that is how it has always been presented to me. There was never a discussion where Debby Yeger was going to work Saturday and Sunday. And, quite frankly, that is fine by me. You want to know why? Because most of our other directors don't work Saturday and Sunday. I am okay with it. I have always been okay with it.

MR. HALTER: Let's have this marked as Petersen 7.

(Thereupon, the document was marked Petersen Exhibit 7 for

BY MR. HALTER:

1 M. PETERSEN

2 paying Mr. Tunstall?

3 A I do because I -- with all these
4 documents, and I think it was close to a hundred.

5 Q Why do you believe that the salary
6 listed here for the director of financial aid
7 is higher than the salary Debby was paid as 8 director of financial aid?

9 A Brian wanted to upgrade.

10 Q How so?

11 A The customer service aspect of 12 financial aid wasn't being accomplished, and 13 he wanted to upgrade. He also threw out,
14 you know, several times, "Listen, guys, you
15 know, when we started this thing, Rick, you
16 didn't give me enough money. You know, I,
17 I -- we built it with what we got and it is 18 working out well. Or it has worked out well 19 to this point. We need to find someone who 20 can carry out this customer service piece
21 more. And in order to do that, I want to go
22 look at a bigger player and I want to 23 attract somebody."

24 Q What qualifications were you
25 looking for that Ms. Yeger didn't have?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A I wasn't looking for it; Brian was.

3 Q What qualifications was ICE
4 looking for that Ms. Yeger didn't have?

5 A Bottom line, they were looking
6 for someone that was going to fulfill that 7 customer service role, that had been in the 8 job or in or had been in that institution
9 for, you know, X amount of years, in the 10 demonstrated capacity of director of 11 financial aid.

12 Q How long had Ms. Yeger been
13 director of financial aid at this point?

14 MR. BAKEN: Objection as to the 15 form of the question. As of January 2012?

16 MR. HALTER: Yes.

17 THE WITNESS: Well, I don't
18 know when she was officially hired. I
19 guess '09 was, she was probably
20 officially hired. So '9, '10, '11,
21 '12, four years.

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q Ms. Yeger complained that the 24 listed salary for this position was higher
25 than her salary, correct?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A I am not privy. She did not
3 complain to me at the time that this was
4 here, so no. I do recall that she complained
5 to me specifically at a point when, at a
6 point when she was under my supervision.

7 Little bit of forward notice, I
8 am going to need to use the restroom when 9 you are ready.

10 Q We are very close.

11 I am showing you what has been 12 marked as Petersen 9. I will spot you that 13 you are not on this e-mail.

14 (Thereupon, the document was
15 marked Petersen Exhibit 9 for
16 identification, as of this date.)

17 MR. BAKEN: So you are 18 conceding there is no foundation?

19 MR. HALTER: I am conceding
20 that I probably could not get it in 21 through this witness exclusively
22 unless it is a business record. It is 23 probably not relevant to this
24 deposition, though, is it?

25 BY MR. HALTER:

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q If you review this, this is DEF
3 ICE 3388.

4 A 338, yes, I got this. Did I
5 review this?

6 Q No. Does this refresh your
7 recollection at all about whether Ms. Yeger
8 complained that the posted salary for the 9 director of financial aid was higher than 10 her salary?

11 MR. BAKEN: Objection as to form.

12 THE WITNESS: I mean, does it...

13 MR. BAKEN: Can I just ask for 14 a clarification? Are you still
15 talking about the same time period,
16 January 2012?

17 MR. HALTER: Yes.

18 THE WITNESS: No, it does not.
19 And I don't even think this would have 20 been a big enough issue to talk to me
21 about. Listen, can I -- maybe something
22 came up. You know, human resources
23 isn't always the smartest. I mean,
24 they put an ad out. Did they put this 25 ad out with the numbers? I don't

1 M. PETERSEN

2 specifically -- gosh, guys, this is
3 such a minor detail. I don't recall this.

4 BY MR. HALTER:

5 Q "This" being?

6 A Debby complaining that she saw an
7 ad and it had more money in it. Here's what
8 I do remember, if we are on this topic.

9 I remember at one point her
10 telling me, you know, "Matt, I know Vince
11 makes more money than me." Did she?
12 I know there was a conversation
13 where I -- and maybe it was third party. We 14 couldn't figure out how she got the information.
15 But that is all I remember. And I don't
16 remember really ever complaining about it.

17 I do remember her coming to me
18 and saying, "Matt, I am underpaid. Look at 19 these, look at these numbers and figures."
20 And I do remember talking to her about it.
21 And then I do remember doing research and 22 meeting back with her at once, and then 23 again saying, "Let's follow up. Let's 24 follow up." So I don't, I don't...

25 MR. HALTER: It is probably a

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q We will get to it. Really, let's
3 just focus on the April 2012 part of it.

4 A Okay.

5 Q Brian Aronowitz writes to you and 6 Mary Anne Kennedy and Rick Smilow, "Wholly
7 excited, have notes to give you guys on this 8 candidate. Strongest finalist yet for D of 9 FA just left my office. Would like you guys
10 to meet with him next week. Terrific
11 interview. Attached is his resume. Got him
12 from a recruiter recently. He will get 13 gobbled up when I tell you some of the 14 stories. It's a good Friday. B. P.S.
15 Meeting with who I think is another finalist
16 on Monday."

17 A Okay.

18 Q Your first question to me was,
19 Where did Vince Tunstall go? You were 20 saying Seton Hall. Does this refresh your 21 recollection that you meant Fairleigh
22 Dickinson, that is where he worked?

23 A Okay, yes.

24 Q Do you remember Mr. Aronowitz
25 talking to you about Mr. Tunstall?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A Yes.

3 Q Prior to your interview, after
4 your interview, what do you recall?

5 A I don't remember.

6 I remember, I remember
7 conversations regarding the idea that Brian
8 thought this guy was a great add for ICE.

9 Q Why did Brian think that this guy
10 was a great -- did you say ed?

11 A Add.

12 Q Add, thank you.

13 A I'm sorry.

14 MR. BAKEN: Objection to the 15 form of the question. Is that why did
16 Brian tell you he felt Mr. Tunstall
17 was a good add? Is that the question?

18 BY MR. HALTER:

19 Q What did Brian say to you about 20 why he was a good add?

21 A I can only generalize because I
22 don't remember the conversation, but it was,
23 "Guys, I have been getting, you know,
24 small-time financial aid people. I can't
25 believe this guy's actually excited to come

1 M. PETERSEN

2 here. He is coming from an organization
3 that has got 30,000 students. He has been 4 in charge of 30 different people," you know,
5 that kind of -- it was like, "Oh, my God,
6 this guy is too big to come here, and I
7 can't believe he wants it."

8 Q You didn't agree with that?

9 A I didn't.

10 Q Why not?

11 A Because he is a not-for-profit.
12 He is somebody that comes from a
13 not-for-profit background. And it is a
14 different structure, or it is a different
15 environment. I have seen a lot of times
16 where not-for-profit folks don't do so well
17 in a for-profit school. And also he came 18 across to me as not an overly -- there was 19 something in his personality that didn't --
20 it didn't -- when I look for -- you know, at 21 least for me, when I am looking for somebody
22 to run an area and run people, you know,
23 there is -- for good or for bad, I am
24 looking for somebody that is going to be 25 strong, direct, to the point, and Vin didn't

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q "This" being?

3 A Well, he -- I don't remember
4 specifically, but he was at a point now
5 where I think it was him and Debby, and he
6 was going to bring back, he wanted to bring 7 back Antonia. Antonia just left. I got to 8 tell you, I had some concerns about bringing 9 somebody that I think was gone for a month
10 or gone for a certain amount of time. And 11 probably that is it.

12 Q You don't recall having a
13 conversation about Debby?

14 A Not specifically off this e-mail, no.

15 Q Do you have an understanding of 16 what Mr. Tunstall is referring to when he 17 said, when he referenced Debby's days off
18 and arrangements made prior to his arrival?

19 A First of all, it wasn't his call.

20 Q What wasn't his call?

21 A The arrangements made prior to my 22 arrival. And that was --

23 Q That is not my question. My 24 question is: Do you have an understanding
25 of what he is referring to?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A I do, sure.

3 Q What is he referring to?

4 A Her contract, the extra days off
5 and the Saturday observance.

6 Q What extra days off?

7 A I think she got an extra week in 8 December. But that is his opinion and that 9 wasn't something that he was entitled to 10 talk about with me.

11 Q Who was he entitled to talk to 12 about it?

13 A It is not really his call.

14 Q Did he talk to you about it?

15 A He complained to me about Debby's
16 overall attendance and not being able to 17 meet with students. But I absolutely
18 believe he accepted that because he had no
19 choice, accepted the fact that Debby wasn't 20 going to be here on Saturday. And I mean to 21 be -- well...

22 MR. HALTER: I need to go off
23 the record.

24 (Whereupon, a recess was taken
25 from 2:54 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.)

1 M. PETERSEN

2 (Thereupon, the document was
3 marked Petersen Exhibit 15 for
4 identification, as of this date.)

5 BY MR. HALTER:

6 Q I put before you what our court
7 reporter has marked as Petersen Exhibit 15.
8 The reference is Yeger 1782 and then it goes
9 down to 1780 and then 1781.

10 Do you recognize these documents?

11 A Well, not the top part, because 12 that wasn't addressed to me, but I saw it in 13 discovery and I remember -- not discovery,
14 yeah, discovery, or as part of prepping for 15 you folks, but I actually remember the topic.

16 Q The second two pages, the title
17 is "Minutes of 10/22/12 meeting." Do you
18 recall a meeting on February (sic) 22, 2012?

19 A I remember the events, yes. I
20 remember this whole topic. This was quite a 21 painful process.

22 Q Do you remember the meeting
23 specifically?

24 A It is a little foggy because I
25 think we might have had more than one

1 M. PETERSEN

2 meeting together. I remember meetings
3 around this time, and I think there might
4 have been two of them, but I don't, you know.

5 Q The first line of this document
6 says, "This is the second meeting with
7 regards to Debby's allocation of her work
8 week at ICE." Did you prepare minutes of 9 the first meeting?

10 A I don't think so, or not that I
11 have, not that I have seen published.

12 Q Then there is a, the third
13 paragraph is with regards to a third
14 meeting, October 22, 2012, I guess the same
15 day. Is this minutes of both a second 16 meeting and a third meeting?

17 A No, I think that this was the 18 third meeting. With regards to the third
19 meeting -- this is the second meeting with 20 regards to Debby's allocation of -- Debby
21 has been challenged -- my guess is that is a
22 typo and this is probably the third meeting
23 because I wouldn't have started to get -- I
24 didn't bring Vin in until the first couple
25 of times talking with Debby were

1 M. PETERSEN

2 unsuccessful. So my guess is this is
3 probably, this is minutes about the third
4 meeting. But, I mean, there are so many
5 e-mails about this. We can figure it out.

6 Q What do you recall about the
7 first meeting?

8 A Well, I don't. What I can tell
9 you is my general process or my theme was 10 when I came on board, I didn't -- and -- 11 Debby indicated to me that, you know, where 12 I heard that Debby doesn't see students, the 13 only person that I have ever heard that --
14 the only person that ever indicated to me
15 that Debby did not see students was Debby.
16 And I don't imagine pretty quickly that came 17 to, that came up, that came to a head,
18 especially now that Vince was here.

19 My goal was to -- I know or my
20 understanding is that a properly functioning
21 financial aid office should be able to 22 operate on a ratio of one, I think, to 250
23 enrolls. So that would have generated three 24 full-time equivalents in financial aid.
25 And, by the way, that is what we run today

1 M. PETERSEN

2 and it is running well.

3 So, my understanding is that we
4 had -- I always lose my train of thought.
5 What was your question again? Can you
6 repeat the question?

7 Q What do you remember about the
8 first meeting?

9 A Oh. So my approach, as I took 10 over the department, is, you know, we should 11 be managing this toward a long term of three 12 people.

13 Q Three people, one of whom is Ms.
14 Yeger?

15 A Oh, yeah, yeah. And I don't know
16 how or when it would have come up or why,
17 but I do know the only person that told me
18 she doesn't meet students is Debby.

19 So, I began to probe into "What 20 is it that you do and how do you do it?"

21 And she said, you know, "Matt, I
22 do compliance."

23 Okay. Well, in my experience I
24 have never had in a for-profit nonuniversity
25 setting a director of compliance. So, what

1 M. PETERSEN

2 does that full-time role look like? And I
3 can't say it was in the first -- so my goal
4 was, "Debby, come back and tell me what that 5 is, tell me what that looks like."

6 That is probably how the first
7 meeting went. Bunch of e-mails going back
8 and forth, you know, "Debby, when are we 9 going to meet? I need a, give me a punch
10 list of what it is that you do."

11 And I don't remember all the 12 specifics, but I do know at a certain point
13 Debby looked at me and said, or at a couple 14 of points she said, "I can't give you an 15 estimate. It varies."

16 "Well, that's the beauty of an 17 estimate. Give me an average."

18 And it was really surprising to 19 me that she couldn't generate this. And,
20 you know, this began in the beginning of 21 September and, I mean, this was almost a 22 four-month process of trying to just to 23 understand what you do and why it takes you
24 so much time, because in my past experience,
25 I never knew that compliance was a full-time job.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q What is your past experience?

3 A I am sorry?

4 Q What is your past experience again?

5 A Past experience is -- well, it
6 started in college and actually kind of got
7 some level of elevation when I was a grad
8 student and I worked real close with the 9 director of financial aid at Rider, which 10 was I think Jack Williams.

11 So, I got a feel of how these 12 things, of how the department works and what 13 we do. He took a liking to me. Where 14 really the lion's share of experience came 15 in was at AUA.

16 Q Title IV for a Caribbean school
17 would be different than Title IV for an 18 American institution, correct?

19 A Different? There is probably
20 some -- yeah, there's probably some nuances.
21 I am not specific on the differences.

22 Q Can't get grants under Title IV
23 for schools in the Caribbean, correct?

24 A Grants? Gosh, I don't know, but 25 what I will tell you is I did work with

1 M. PETERSEN

2 stateside schools, you know, Angley College.

3 Q That is when you reviewed the audit?

4 A Reviewing the audits. There
5 might be differences, sure, there might be a
6 difference.

7 Q And you don't know what those are?

8 MR. BAKEN: Objection to the
9 form of the question.

10 THE WITNESS: No.

11 MR. HALTER: What is the basis
12 for the objection?

13 MR. BAKEN: "And you don't know
14 what those are?" I don't know what 15 that pertains to.

16 MR. HALTER: Okay.

17 MR. BAKEN: He was talking about --

18 MR. HALTER: You got the answer?

19 MR. BAKEN: He was talking
20 about a couple of different experiences
21 at a couple different places.

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q Okay. So, you told me what your 24 memory was of the first meeting. What was 25 your memory of the second meeting?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A Well, no, that was my memory of
3 the process in general leading up to when we
4 had to introduce Vince. I don't remember
5 what happened at all of the different meetings.

6 What I can tell you is there were
7 several conversations on top of meetings.
8 This was at the point where I said I got to 9 start to memorialize this because we are 10 spending way too much time on me trying to 11 figure out what Debby does. So, I dropped 12 by her desk. You know, I have asked her to 13 please just give me a bullet point roster of 14 what compliance details. We met a few times
15 and nothing was getting done.

16 Q What do you mean by "nothing was 17 getting done"?

18 A I wasn't getting further in my 19 understanding of what her role and 20 responsibility was here.

21 Q Well, in the second bullet point,
22 my question was about the second meeting.
23 "The second meeting was for the purpose of 24 reviewing Debby's initial concern that 25 20 hours was not enough. At the end of that

1 M. PETERSEN

2 meeting it was agreed that the initial
3 concerns were not a cause for concern and 4 that 20 hours was still possible."

5 Do you remember Debby telling you
6 that 20 hours was not enough?

7 A I remember Debby telling me that 8 compliance was a full-time job, and the 9 interpretation was, "Matt, this is a
10 40-hour-a-week job."

11 Now, that was my -- that was my
12 interpretation of what she was telling me,
13 that "I can't see students and I don't see 14 students."

15 Q What do you recall about some 16 agreement that the initial concerns were not 17 a cause for concern and that 20 hours was 18 still possible?

19 A I can't remember -- the first
20 meeting was for the purpose of -- you know
21 what? Initially, again, the only time I
22 ever heard that Debby doesn't see students
23 is from Debby. And I --

24 Q That wasn't my question.

25 A Hold on. But I am trying in my

1 M. PETERSEN

2 own mind to get through this. The first
3 meeting we sat down and I said, "Well, I
4 don't think it is full-time. Let's
5 challenge ourselves to see if, you know, we 6 can, we can box that into half your role
7 here at ICE."

8 So, "Matt, I can't do that. I've 9 got this, that, this, that."

10 I said, "Okay. So come back to 11 me and tell me what it is that you do."

12 I can't tell you why the second
13 meeting -- I mean, probably the second
14 meeting what happened is she vocally told me
15 things and it didn't seem to cut the mustard
16 with me. And I said, "Go back and do the 17 list or do something. You got to generate 18 something so we can really go through it."
19 That is my guess.

20 Q Did Ms. Yeger agree that her
21 initial concerns were not a cause for 22 concern and that 20 hours was still possible?

23 A Yes, I wouldn't have wrote -- I
24 wouldn't have written that unless she agreed.

25 Q Let's look at the first page,

1 M. PETERSEN

2 1782. In her e-mail to you on October 24th,
3 that is two days after the third meeting,
4 she says, "The average time spent on a file
5 review is approximately 55 minutes, which 6 does not include the see/view process or if 7 additional students/parent contact is required."

8 Does that change your opinion of 9 whether Ms. Yeger had agreed that 20 hours a 10 week was possible?

11 A Not necessarily, because it might 12 have been at that time that she provided the 13 list that equaled up to 55 minutes, which 14 was two days later.

15 I remember for quite a lot of 16 time her saying, "Matt, it is a full-time
17 job, it is a full-time job."

18 And, you know, I would, we would,
19 I would challenge her. And at the end Debby
20 would -- Debby has a history of agreeing,
21 but then maybe not moving forward in the 22 direction that she agreed to.

23 Here's what I will tell you. At 24 that time, my guess is that this was before
25 the 55-minute document had been provided.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 That is my guess.

3 Q My question was: Does that
4 change your opinion about whether there was 5 an agreement by Ms. Yeger --

6 A No, it doesn't.

7 Q In your mind she absolutely
8 agreed that she could do a compliance within 9 20 hours a week?

10 A Here's what I will tell you. I
11 never put something down on a piece of paper
12 where, or I would never publish a final
13 document before providing this to somebody,
14 my understanding, and I wouldn't put words
15 in somebody's mouth.

16 So, there was, there were
17 several -- and I think what you are going to 18 find is that throughout these documents we 19 -- and it started to become a problem for 20 me, so I had to bring in more people -- is 21 that I would think we would come to an 22 understanding on something. We would -- and 23 then we would meet back and then it would be 24 different. So, as a strategy of mine, which 25 I think you are going to see as we go

1 M. PETERSEN

2 through further in these documents, I had to
3 draw more people in the room.

4 Q Who were those more people you
5 drew into a room?

6 A Well, depending upon the
7 situation, it would have been Mary Anne with 8 Debby, Vince with Debby, Mary Anne and Vince
9 with Debby. Then it would have moved on to 10 Mary Anne and Debby, then Martha, Mary Anne
11 and Debby. And then when there were student
12 issues, to try and really concrete was I
13 getting this right, it would be Matt, Debby, 14 Mary Anne. Might have been Mary Anne and 15 Martha. And then the individuals who were 16 complaining about Debby, trying to get them
17 all in a room.

18 Q Why did you bring human resources
19 into this conversation? That is Mary Anne, right?

20 A I don't believe I brought Mary
21 Anne into this conversation. I was saying
22 that as I handled things, there were certain
23 times throughout our conversations when I
24 continued to add people in the room. She 25 was one that I used. I don't know if --

1 M. PETERSEN

2 actually, I don't think I did bring Mary
3 Anne -- yeah, I don't think I, I don't think
4 Mary Anne was involved in this, or I don't
5 recall if Mary Anne was involved in this.

6 MR. HALTER: Let's mark this as
7 Petersen 16.

8 THE WITNESS: Certainly not a
9 big player in this. These minutes
10 were put into the file, though. I 11 know that.

12 (Thereupon, the document was
13 marked Petersen Exhibit 16 for
14 identification, as of this date.)

15 BY MR. HALTER:

16 Q Do you recall sending the minutes
17 that we were just looking at, to Mary Anne 18 Kennedy?

19 A Well, I told you I put them in 20 her file. Mary Anne would have been the one
21 that I was handing them to.

22 Q Did you have a conversation with 23 Mary Anne before you sent her this document?

24 A Probably, because -- I mean, at 25 this point I am asking somebody for, or I am

1 M. PETERSEN

2 asking Debby for an understanding of what
3 she does. And this is probably seven weeks
4 into asking for a conversation, you know,
5 into asking for information. And at the 6 seven-week point I got nothing. I got nothing.

7 Q Why was it a human resources issue?

8 A A failure to follow instructions.
9 I can't get a staff member to -- I found
10 that it was, it was -- I couldn't understand
11 why it was so hard to get this information.

12 Q Were you thinking about firing her?

13 A No, not at this point, not at 14 this point.

15 Q So why would you involve human 16 resources?

17 A Well, that is what human
18 resources are there for. We pay a high, a 19 relatively high-level HR person. We were 20 trying to up our employee assets, if you
21 want to call it. And Mary Anne's strong
22 suit, and one of the reasons why we hired
23 her, was that we thought she would be a lot,
24 we thought she would be a terrific asset
25 with growing people and working through

1 M. PETERSEN

2 conflicts and -- listen, I don't know
3 everything. So, it might have been at this 4 point, "Mary Anne, I don't know how to get
5 through to Debby. You know, this is what I
6 have got so far. Give me some advice."

7 Again, we -- this wasn't a very
8 big company, but what we did have was a nice
9 executive team. And we, we were evolving
10 into a non-siloed company. I am sure I
11 talked to Brian about this at this point.

12 Q Did Ms. Kennedy tell you to start
13 documenting your records with Ms. Yeger?

14 A There was a certain point where 15 she said that. I don't know if it was at 16 this point. This I would have -- I believe 17 at this point I was doing this on my own.
18 And again, this is part of my process.

19 If I am having a difficult time
20 with somebody, I am going to do -- okay. I
21 don't carry it out flawlessly, but I try to 22 be consistent and communicate in different
23 ways to get what I need across, especially 24 in certain thematic things.

25 Q In Petersen 16 Mary Anne

1 M. PETERSEN

2 MR. HALTER: He just said, "not
3 at this time."

4 I will stand by my question.

5 THE WITNESS: When did I worry
6 about it? Or, first of all, worrying,
7 I don't -- when did I first think --
8 well, first of all, there is a
9 possibility of litigation any time. I
10 am dealing with a company that has got 11 800 students, 30,000 customers. I
12 have got 200 employees. At all times
13 it is in my benefit to keep the 14 records straight.

15 At this point in time, there
16 was not, or I believe that there
17 wasn't a concern of litigation. When
18 I do think that there was an ah-hah
19 moment was when that first letter came 20 through, and I don't remember what
21 time that was, from Debby's attorneys.

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q Let's go back to this October
24 22nd, 2012 meeting.

25 As part of that meeting, Debby

1 M. PETERSEN

2 asks if she can have defined hours for
3 compliance and defined hours for student
4 services, correct?

5 A She did, she asked for that.

6 Q You said no, right?

7 A She asked for that several times, yes.

8 Q Why did you say no?

9 A Because it's not, that's not the 10 way it works. Kids, students don't come in 11 at defined times. I think at this point
12 there was -- there was some oscillation in 13 regards to how Debby, you know, was supposed
14 to, at least under my tenure, how Debby's
15 engagement would be with students, you know,
16 with the students. At first, you know, my 17 desire was, "Listen, Debby, you are in the 18 office. When you see there is a backflow of 19 people, help. That is what we are looking 20 for here."

21 Q Mr. Tunstall scheduled people in 22 shifts, right?

23 A I don't recall if that is what he 24 did, what he was doing at this point. I do --

25 Q At some point he did schedule

1 M. PETERSEN

2 people in shifts, right?

3 A Yes, he did. He absolutely did.

4 Q When you worked at financial aid
5 at Rider, did you have a shift?

6 A I wouldn't say that -- it was a
7 little -- at Rider, no, there weren't
8 shifts. It was nine to five and people came 9 in nine to five.

10 Q You worked nine to five while you
11 were at school at Rider?

12 A I thought you were referring to 13 the actual financial aid people, not the 14 graduate assistants. The financial aid
15 people worked nine to five Monday through 16 Friday. That was it.

17 Q There was no Saturday at Rider?

18 A I can't say there was never not a 19 Saturday. What I can tell you, it was not 20 general business practice. And what I can 21 also tell -- well, that is it.

22 Q You say Yeger did provide you
23 with estimates of time required for various 24 tasks in compliance, correct?

25 A Finally she did, yes. It was a list.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 MR. HALTER: Okay. Let's mark
3 this as Petersen 17.

4 (Thereupon, the document was
5 marked Petersen Exhibit 17 for
6 identification, as of this date.)

7 BY MR. HALTER:

8 Q Petersen 17 is a compilation of 9 exhibits. It starts with Yeger 1746 and 10 goes to 1754.

12 A Yes. The list.

13 Q Do you recall when you got this?

14 A I do.

15 Q When did you get it?

16 A I believe this was prepared at --
17 okay. This was -- I don't know if Debby and 18 I sat with this first in privacy or not.
19 What I can tell you is there was a second 20 point where we did bring in Vin on this.

21 So this might have been the 22 fourth meeting or sometime thereafter, the 23 fifth meeting, my guess.

24 Q Did she comply with your request
25 that she put together a list of everything

2 that was --

3 A Yes, she did.

4 Q Let me finish my question.

5 -- everything that was required
6 for her compliance duties, right?

7 A Yes, it did, yes. Or this was
8 the start, let's say. This was a good start
9 when I got this.

10 Q What was your reaction to seeing this?

11 A Well, the 55 minutes I just, I
12 briefly started to look through it. And I
13 said, you know, let's take a little 14 background. What I continued to ask was for 15 an average of the amount of time it takes to 16 do a file, to comply with a file. So she 17 sent this. And, I mean, within very, very 18 shortly -- let's see, how can I say this?

19 Upon the first couple of minutes
20 of looking at it, I got real disappointed
21 because rather than an average, it became a 22 bucket of every possible thing which she 23 could possibly do, of which the bucket had 24 things you couldn't possibly do for the same
25 student. So, like, ISAR not selected, ISAR selected. Well, it is either three minutes or four minutes per student; it is not seven minutes.

M. PETERSEN

Verification works; she's dependent, independent? Okay. It is either four minutes or it's three minutes, but it is not seven minutes.

Income tax transcript, independent, dependent? Well, it is either four minutes or four minutes. It is not eight minutes.

You know, and there might have been one or two more. You know, New Jersey class, well, all right, I mean, that is, that is if you are getting a New Jersey class.

And Sallie Mae, well, okay, that is if you are getting a Sallie Mae, but only 15 percent of our group gets a Sallie Mae.

So, I questioned -- at this point it didn't ring true, not, not -- assuming even the numbers, I wasn't arguing with the amounts of time because, quite frankly, I don't know what some of these things, how long some of these things take.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Although what I will tell you now
3 is financial aid today, compliance, if you
4 ask Martha or Antonia, it is a couple of 5 minutes, and it is almost a non, it is 6 almost a non-issue. It is just, it is all
7 conducted before they do a final punchdown,
8 release of money.

9 So at this point in time, I saw
10 that this couldn't possibly be an average.
11 So I looked at Debby. I said, "Debby, this 12 doesn't make sense to me."

13 "Matt, I am not able to give 14 you" -- and this was probably the -- this 15 was certainly another of several to many 16 instances where Debby said, "I am not 17 capable of giving you an average."

18 "Okay. So, Debby, we got to 19 figure this out. Let's talk to, let's bring 20 Vin in, because he has done this before."

21 Now, I think what was creating
22 this friction at this point in time, or what 23 may have been adding to this, is we are 24 probably close to November, and at this 25 point Vin is saying, you know, "Debby won't

1 M. PETERSEN

2 see students." And I think Charles was or 3 was not gone. Antonia was or was not gone.
4 I had to make some decisions.

5 I was under heat by, I want to 6 say Brian. "Matt, this thing has got to run
7 with four people. This thing has got to run
8 with four people." And so I had to call in 9 another person to help. And that was Vin.

10 Q Did you volunteer to sit with Ms.
11 Yeger as she reviewed a file?

12 A No, I didn't.

13 Q Why not?

14 A Quite frankly, who am I to -- no.
15 Why didn't I? I can't afford, even at this
16 level I can't afford to sit with, you know,
17 everybody to figure out what their job
18 function is, especially at an initial stage.

19 Q You can't spend a day in 20 financial aid? Why not watch Vince for an 21 hour, why not watch Antonia for an hour, why
22 not watch Ms. Yeger for an hour?

23 A Fair. I could have done that. I
24 didn't.

25 Q Why not?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 deciding whether she could spend, whether
3 she could do her compliance time after spending
4 20 hours a week on financial aid stuff?

5 A Here's what I often said to 6 Debby. When she would tell me she has got 7 to go, I would say, "Debby, focus on getting
8 well. Please provide your schedule to us
9 when you can, or as early as you can, so
10 that Vince can fill in the blanks."

11 There was nothing other than,
12 there was never anything other from me which 13 was at least generally in direction, "Debby, 14 go get well. Take the time you need." And,
15 by the way, this is the same approach that I
16 take with all of our staff. "We will be 17 here when you can," you know, "we will, we 18 are here when you can be here. In the 19 meantime, the staff will fill in."

20 And that was, if I can get a step
21 further, when Vin was -- there was a point
22 where Vin now was getting on the schedule.
23 And, "Matt, I am not going to put in Debby
24 because I don't know when she is coming in."

25 You know, at that point, I said,

M. PETERSEN

"I will step in. Let me, you know, let me ask Debby to, or reiterate to Debby, please let us know when your comings and goings are so that Vin can fill in the rest of the student aid staffing for the calendar."

And she was given priority over Vin and Antonia, or anybody else that worked in that department, with regards to staffing. "Debby, you pick first and we will go from there." At least that was my intention, and I believe that is the direction that it went in.

Q Six hours a day, five days a week is 30 hours, right?

A Uh-huh.

Q Plus she has to leave early on Friday, right?

A Uh-huh.

Q 20 hours a week for financial aid sounds like a lot under that schedule, right?

MR. BAKEN: Objection,
argumentative.

BY MR. HALTER:

Q You can answer.

1 M. PETERSEN
2 worked from home sometimes, right?

3 A Yes, I was.

4 Q You were aware that she worked
5 Sundays to make up time, right?

6 A I don't know if I was aware that 7 she worked Sundays. I was aware that she 8 worked off hours at home.

9 Q She can't meet students off hours
10 at home, right?

11 A Yes, that is correct.

12 MR. HALTER: Can I have this
13 marked as Petersen 19.

14 (Thereupon, the document was
15 marked Petersen Exhibit 19 for
16 identification, as of this date.)

17 BY MR. HALTER:

18 Q Document that was e-mailed to us
19 probably about an hour ago. Do you
20 recognize this document?

21 A This was the document I pulled 22 for, or I found for Scott, that was in my 23 file but --

24 THE WITNESS: Scott, this was 25 part of my initial due diligence

1 M. PETERSEN

2 because the way that I utilize my
3 e-mail is a lot of times I will do
4 unread, you know, view only, unread,
5 and it knocks them out sometimes. But 6 that is not a very large case and this
7 is a very rare occurrence.

8 MR. HALTER: Let's mark this as
9 Petersen 23.

10 (Thereupon, the document was
11 marked Petersen Exhibit 23 for
12 identification, as of this date.)

13 BY MR. HALTER:

14 Q Do you recognize this e-mail?

15 A I do.

16 Q Do you recall it from 17 November 2012 or sometime more recently?

18 A Well, no. I don't recall it from 19 November 2012, but I remember it as part of 20 discovery, or prepping.

21 Q Do you have any recollection of 22 the events noted here in this e-mail, other
23 than the e-mail itself?

24 A Well, I mean, to the point that 25 it was striking to me that she was going to

2 be out for half a month and she hadn't told
3 me. And the way that I found out about this 4 was -- and again, because I have looked at 5 the documents during discovery, I think
6 Vince sent it to me. So, I was really
7 surprised at that point and I was concerned
8 that had Vince, had it not been for Vince,
9 there would have been a very large amount of 10 time out of the office without me knowing.
11 And, you know, by the time this came 12 through, she was not going to be here in 13 14 days. I mean, so what? We will work
14 around it, but...

15 Q What makes you think she is not
16 going to be there in 14 days?

17 A Because she takes -- the e-mail
18 says December 18th she is going to be out.

19 Q Where does it say that?

20 A Or not this e-mail. Here.

21 I think Vince -- there is another
22 e-mail where somehow Vince was policing this 23 stuff, and he said, "Matt, Debby is not 24 going to be here." And so if you have that 25 e-mail, that is how I know that she was going to be out during that time.

Q She says she is out the week, the week of December 27th, right? That is what she says in this e-mail.

A That was from Vince.

Q "Hi, Matt, I noticed you scheduled a meeting with me for an individual review on December 27th at 2 o'clock. I will be out of the office that week, approved PTO. Can you schedule a meeting before December 18th?" Right?

A Uh-huh.

Q She doesn't say she is going to be out after the 18th; she just wants you to schedule it before the 18th, right?

MR. BAKEN: Objection to the form of the question. She doesn't say she is not going to be out after the 18th either.

BY MR. HALTER:

Q My question was: She doesn't say that in this e-mail, right?

A Here's what I will tell you, that Vince sent me an e-mail that said she was

1 M. PETERSEN

2 going to be out of the office. She better
3 check into this. So, can we get that 4 e-mail? And I was disturbed because that is 5 the first time I heard it.

6 Q Mr. Baken has a chance to cross-
7 examination after my questioning. If he 8 thinks I have left something out, that will 9 be his opportunity.

10 A Okay, cool. I am telling you how 11 this happened. Vince was not the person
12 that I first heard this from. I mean, Debby
13 was not the person I first heard this from.
14 Debby was absolutely not the first person.

15 Q Okay. ICE was actually
16 contractually obligated to give Ms. Yeger
17 four days off between the 23rd of December
18 and the 31st of December.

19 A And I am okay with that.

20 MR. BAKEN: Just note my 21 objection. That calls for a legal 22 conclusion.

23 BY MR. HALTER:

24 Q It was in her offer letter, correct?

25 MR. BAKEN: She was also an

1 M. PETERSEN

2 at-will employee. That was also in
3 her offer letter. No contract. You
4 are asking a layperson.

5 BY MR. HALTER:

6 Q There are contractual obligations
7 in her offer letter. But her offer letter
8 said, "ICE will give you four days off between 9 December 23rd and December 31st," right?

10 A I do know that that is in her
11 letter, yes.

12 Q And you think she had to clear
13 that with you every single time?

14 A No, no. Here's my thought
15 process as to how a reasonable and customary
16 situation would be. I take on a department.
17 I don't know what is going, you know, I take 18 over a department. There's a million things
19 within a department that move. People are 20 our most important asset. I absolutely
21 think that as December was approaching, a
22 reasonable person would have told me that "I
23 am going to be out of the office for two 24 weeks," and would have given me notice about 25 that. She doesn't have to clear things by

1 M. PETERSEN

2 me, but I got to know how things work.

3 And when this was clear, there
4 was never a problem with me when I was told
5 that, you know, "I need to take a day off,"
6 or "I don't work Saturdays," or "I have 7 these four or five days."

8 Here's what I will tell you I
9 will do. I will verify everything. When 10 somebody comes to me and says I have this or 11 I have that, I got to verify it. Okay, give 12 me the employment letter. And my guess is 13 that before this point in time, I never 14 would have looked at her employment letter
15 from four years ago.

16 Q Brian Aronowitz would have known
17 that already, right?

18 MR. BAKEN: Objection. You are 19 asking him to comment what Brian knows
20 or doesn't know.

21 BY MR. HALTER:

22 Q Brian Aronowitz negotiated the 23 offer letter, correct?

24 A I would say that Brian Aronowitz
25 would have to have known about this.

1 M. PETERSEN

2 Q And until September 2012, Brian
3 Aronowitz was Ms. Yeger's supervisor, right?

4 A Yeah.

5 Q Do you think Ms. Yeger told Mr.
6 Aronowitz in those nine months about when
7 she's taking off in December?

8 MR. BAKEN: Objection, asking
9 for speculation.

10 BY MR. HALTER:

11 Q Go ahead.

12 A I have no idea. Here's what I
13 will tell you.

14 Now that I am your boss and now
15 that I am charged with running that 16 department, it would be a -- if we are 17 trying to work together, it is a good idea
18 to tell me that you are going to be out for 19 two weeks.

20 Q Do you know why Ms. Yeger needed
21 to take time off in late December?

22 A No.

23 Q Did you ask?

24 A No, it is not my business.

25 Q Didn't you at some point learn

1 M. PETERSEN

2 that she had surgery in late December?

3 A Was it in this letter?

4 Q I am just asking. At some point
5 did you learn that?

6 MR. BAKEN: Object to the form
7 of the question.

8 You can answer.

9 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
10 Here's what I do know, that she took
11 off -- I don't know if it is a 12 procedure, or I know that she had to 13 take time off from work to tend to 14 medical needs.

15 BY MR. HALTER:

16 Q And some of that is late
17 December, right?

18 A I don't know.

19 Q Do you know as of November 27th,
20 when she sent you the e-mail asking for 21 December 18th, to meet before December 18th,
22 if her surgery had been scheduled yet?

23 A Repeat the question.

24 Q Do you know, when she sent you
25 the e-mail on November 27th about meeting

1 M. PETERSEN

2 before December 18th, if her surgery had 3 been scheduled yet?

4 MR. BAKEN: I will object to 5 the form.

6 You can answer.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay. What I
8 heard you ask is: On November 27th,
9 did you know that she had scheduled a --

10 BY MR. HALTER:

11 Q Did you know if she had scheduled
12 surgery at that time?

13 A No.

14 Q Is it possible that she knew
15 there was going to be surgery in late
16 December but not exactly when, but she 17 should meet with you before, whenever her
18 surgery was going to be?

19 MR. BAKEN: Objection as to 20 form. Again, you are asking him to 21 comment on her thought process.

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q I am asking you if it is possible
24 based on your reading of these e-mails and 25 what you know.

M. PETERSEN

A Is it possible --

MR. BAKEN: Object as to form.

Anything is possible.

BY MR. HALTER:

Q She knew that she needed surgery
in late December.

A I didn't know that.

Q Assume that.

A Okay.

Q If it wasn't scheduled yet but she knew it was going to be in late December, would it be appropriate for her to ask you to meet prior to December 18th?

MR. BAKEN: Object to the hypothetical.

THE WITNESS: I am not -- I am sorry, I am not understanding what you are asking me.

BY MR. HALTER:

Q Isn't it actually wise of her to ask to meet with you before December 18th if she doesn't know when her surgery is going to be yet, as long as she knows it is going to be after December 18th at some point?

1 M. PETERSEN

2 A Yeah, I agree. Here's my problem.

3 Q It is her being a conscientious
4 employee, right?

5 MR. BAKEN: Can you let him
6 answer the question? That was a
7 ground rule.

8 THE WITNESS: Here's my problem
9 with this. It is not that -- you need
10 to understand, this is four or five
11 months into me working with her. All
12 I wanted her to do was be the person
13 to keep me abreast of her schedule so 14 that I could alleviate Vin coming at 15 me saying, "Matt, I don't know what 16 this lady is doing." It would
17 absolutely be good that she did this.

18 Here's my problem, that every
19 time, or many times that there was a
20 scheduling issue, I wouldn't know
21 about it. And in this particular 22 time, and I think I even wrote it in 23 this e-mail, I had heard it from 24 Vince. And here's the -- I mean, this 25 was pretty close, but I heard this

1 M. PETERSEN

2 first from Vince. That is why I
3 continued to get upset about it.

4 Because, understand, I was her
5 supervisor. I was her supervisor.
6 And I would ask her, "Please tell me
7 what your scheduled PTO is going to be
8 so that I can understand it." And it
9 was either go in to Antonia, or go in 10 to Vince, and then maybe I would get
11 one once in a while. I can't manage a
12 difficult situation if it is not coming,
13 if I am not getting the information.

14 BY MR. HALTER:

15 Q Your e-mail at top says, "But 16 being out of the office for 50 percent of 17 December absolutely qualifies as something
18 we need to speak about."

19 A Yeah.

20 Q That is an exaggeration, right?

21 MR. BAKEN: Objection,
22 argumentative.

23 THE WITNESS: No, that is 24 absolutely not an exaggeration. If 25 you are going to be --

1 M. PETERSEN

2 BY MR. HALTER:

3 Q Was she going to be out for
4 50 percent of December?

5 MR. BAKEN: Can you just let
6 him finish his answer? This is --

7 MR. HALTER: Then we are going
8 to be more than seven hours.

9 MR. BAKEN: Not if you let him
10 finish the answer. If you keep 11 interrupting, it is going to delay things.

12 MR. HALTER: Go ahead and
13 filibuster. Go ahead.

14 THE WITNESS: And what?

15 MR. HALTER: Go ahead and
16 finish your answer.

17 MR. BAKEN: That is argumentative.

18 THE WITNESS: Look, she is 19 telling me she is going to be out by 20 the 18th for the rest of the year, I
21 think, here, or something to that extent.

22 BY MR. HALTER:

23 Q She is going to be in on the 24 18th, right?

25 A She is going to be out after the

1 M. PETERSEN

2 18th for the rest of the year. Did I round
3 up? What is 18 -- so is that 45 percent of 4 the month?

5 Q It is six vacation days.

6 A How is that six vacation days?

7 Q Because the 18th is a Tuesday.

8 A Okay.

9 Q She needs Wednesday, Thursday,
10 Friday off.

11 A Hold on.

12 Q Christmas Eve she gets off,
13 right? Christmas she gets off. And then
14 the 26th, 27th, 28th she needs off, right?

15 A You are telling me that if
16 somebody is not going to be in for two weeks --

17 Q Not even two weeks. Here, look 18 at the calendar.

19 A Okay.

20 Q Right?

21 A So let's go through this. 18th
22 is a Tuesday. 19th, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27,
23 28 and 31. Now, I will grant you that
24 Christmas is there. This is over two weeks
25 that she would be --

1

2

Q Is ICE open on Christmas Eve?

A I think it depends upon the year.

Q Is it open on New Year's Eve?

A It depends again upon the year.

It was -- from that e-mail I responded in a way, when I looked at that e-mail, that she is going to be out for half the month. So it is 45 percent of the month, and that is a lot of time. And I wish when we are having problems about and I make a comment that if you are going to come in late, please tell me, this seemed to be a really egregious amount, situation where -- egregious isn't the right word. If I am asking you to please let me know, you know, when you are going to be late, please let me know if you are not going to be in for a day, we know that there is problems with scheduling. Jim, my response to this e-mail, when I saw it, was holy cow, that is over -- like I said, that is 50 percent of the month. You know, please, please let me know before or as soon as you can.

25

Q Are you now aware of the fact

1 M. PETERSEN

2 that Ms. Yeger was in the office on 3 December 19th?

4 A No.

5 Q Are you now aware of the fact
6 that she was in the office on December 20th?

7 MR. BAKEN: Object to the form
8 of the question.

9 THE WITNESS: No.

10 BY MR. HALTER:

11 Q Are you now aware of the fact
12 that she was in the office on December 21st?

13 A No. What does it matter at this 14 point in time?

15 Q Because it wasn't scheduled yet.
16 Is she supposed to tell you about something
17 that is not scheduled yet?

18 A If something is happening, if you
19 have a reasonable -- if in your mind, when 20 you are going through a time where the 21 financial aid office is understaffed and all
22 of a sudden you have half the staff you used
23 to have, because Antonia and Charles is 24 gone, and you can see the guy across, in 25 front of you, that's running it physically

1 M. PETERSEN

2 form of the question. To this witness?

3 BY MR. HALTER:

4 Q At all, that you are aware of?

5 A Complaints that I am aware of of 6 discrimination? I know at a certain point
7 -- well, let's do it very clearly.

8 Certainly before the legal
9 letter, that first legal letter came out, I
10 am not aware of any. So there was, you
11 know, a legal letter. I know that one
12 there. And I think that alleges possible
13 concerns of that.

14 I know that Mary Anne may have 15 reached out to her and had a meeting with 16 her on it. You know, I think the resolution
17 of that was, you know, "Debby, I really 18 don't see any discrimination here."

19 There is one time in my mind that 20 sticks out where she -- it wasn't a, I
21 wouldn't say it was a complaint. But she 22 came to Mary Anne and said, "You know, Mary 23 Anne, Matt does this thing when we, when we 24 meet, and it is, you know, he holds up his 25 hand at me to keep me quiet."

M. PETERSEN

Mary Anne thought enough of it at the time and she came in and she counseled me and said, "Matt, why don't you talk to her about it."

So, Debby and I met. We talked about it. I said, "I apologize. Sometimes, though, it is hard for me to get a word in edgewise and it is frustrating. Let's agree that you work on that and I am going to work on the hands." And I don't -- I think from that point we were okay with that topic.

Q If you could respond to my questions. There is a lot in there that was not responsive to my question.

A Okay.

MR. BAKEN: Objection.

BY MR. HALTER:

Q Ms. Yeger complained to you about a salary discrepancy between her and Mr. Tunstall, right?

A She did come and talk to me about her salary. To be quite frank, there has been so much conversation about that since, and I see this document of a higher salary,

1 M. PETERSEN

2 and I don't recall if it was a specific 3 complaint about her salary being less than
4 Vince's. I believe her specific complaint
5 was, "Matt, look, I am being underpaid. And 6 here's my document to show that."

7 Q She didn't mention Mr. Tunstall
8 at all during that conversation?

9 A Not in a way that I recall would 10 have been a complaint that, you know, she is 11 making less than him. I believe the focus 12 of that conversation was, "Look, I did some 13 research. I should be paid this, and I
14 think I deserve a raise."

15 Q We did she have this conversation
16 with you?

17 A I don't recall. But I do know --

18 Q What did she say about Mr.
19 Tunstall specifically?

20 MR. BAKEN: Objection as to form.

21 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat
22 the question?

23 BY MR. HALTER:

24 Q Yes. What did she say about Mr.
25 Tunstall specifically?
